

The Student Leadership Challenge: Five Practices For Becoming an Exemplary Leader*	Student Leadership Challenge Behaviors*	LEAP Legacy Chapter Activities	Supporting Documents
PRACTICE	Model the Way Follow through on promises and commitments Set a personal example through actions Align others with principles and standards Seek feedback about impact of actions Make sure teammates support common values Talk about values and principles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participated in leadership programs at the local, state, or national level Created a Chapter Program of Work 	Leadership session agenda Chapter Constitution and Bylaws
			Inspire a Shared Vision Look ahead and communicate future ideas Describe ideal capabilities Talk about how future could be improved Be upbeat and positive Communicate purpose and meaning Show others how their interests can be realized	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participated in school, state, or national service project Delivered presentation on technology and engineering education and TSA goals and benefits 	Service logs Powerpoint presentation
					Challenge the Process Challenge current skills and abilities Break projects into smaller do-able portions Search for innovative ways to improve Ask "What can we learn?" Take initiative in experimenting Help others try out new ideas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Earned industry-recognized certifications (Adobe, Autodesk, etc.) Attended a STEM training or seminar 	Certifications earned Seminar agenda
							Enable Others to Act Foster cooperative relationships with others Actively listen to diverse viewpoints Treat others with respect Support the decisions other people make Give people freedom and choice Provide leadership opportunities for others	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hosted training/leadership workshops Promoted STEM through National TSA Week activities 	Workshop flier or agenda Social media campaigns, and outcomes
									Encourage the Heart Praise people Encourage others Express appreciation for people's contributions Publicly recognize alignment with values Celebrate accomplishments Creatively recognize people's contributions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participated in CTE month activities Participated in Teacher Appreciation Week 	External/internal press (Local) Letter from principal