We Are the Light and Hope Jack Crawford, National TSA President

I have always believed that every single person has a unique talent or gift and that we all have a duty to our communities to use those gifts in a way that benefits those around us.

I actively take part in as many community service opportunities as possible but the one of which I am most proud took place my sophomore year of high school. That was the year I was a member of the 2015 Lowndes Leadership Youth League, a community oriented organization designed to educate high school students about different aspects of my county's economy, cities and respective governments and their representation and role in the state legislature.
