

TSA Today

Keep up with everything going on in the TSA community! Member opportunities, highlights, and reminders – we've got you covered.

---

The national TSA conference begins in just 20 days at the Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando, Florida! See important information, including the schedule-at-a-glance, competitive event details, conference highlights, and Orlando attractions here.

---

Professional Leadership Training at the National TSA Conference

Professional leadership training will be offered to middle and high school TSA members, as well as advisors, at the 2017 national TSA conference in Orlando, FL.

Each session will be customized for the audience (middle school members, high school members, and advisors), and will focus on The Student Leadership Challenge - Five Practices for Becoming an Exemplary Leader, how the Five Practices can be applied to TSA competitions, and important LEAP information. These training sessions will also help TSA members define their futures as leaders in their chapter, school, and beyond. All session attendees will receive a pin and certificate upon completion of the training.

If available, extra tickets will be provided on-site at the national TSA conference at the advisor update meetings. Learn more about these professional leadership training sessions here.

---

LEAP Resumes at the National TSA Conference

All high school TSA members competing at the national TSA conference are required to submit a

LEAP resume as part of every competition in which they are competing. High school entries submitted without a LEAP resume will be disqualified. Review the 2017 national TSA conference LEAP guidelines for high school competitive events here.

Resources for LEAP resumes are available on the TSA website:

Individual Event Resources

Team Event Resources

What Are Your Priorities?

Erin Sullivan, National TSA Secretary

Many high school students look forward to one spring event: the prom. I will admit I had always wanted to go to prom. However, last spring as prom season approached I realized that my school's prom fell on the same weekend as my TSA state leadership conference. I was heartbroken. I was on the prom planning committee and I found that I was diligently working to create a perfect prom that I would not get to attend. Read more

Technology Student Association | 888.860.9010 | general@tsaweb.org | tsaweb.org

STAY CONNECTED:

