Virtual Conference Code of Conduct

It is of paramount importance to TSA that every person who attends the virtual national TSA conference has a positive and rewarding experience. To that end, TSA is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all conference participants.

TSA has established this Virtual Conference Code of Conduct to provide guidelines to participants and to ensure that all participants understand the behavior that is expected, as well as any behavior that will not be tolerated. All participants in the TSA community are expected to abide by this Virtual Conference Code of Conduct.

- Conference competitors must be prompt and prepared for all competitions and conference activities.
- Conference competitors must abide by all rules and regulations set forth in the virtual competition guides.
- Conference participants must not harass, intimidate, or engage in discrimination in any form.
- Conference participants must not engage in verbal or written abuse of any kind.
- Conference participants must not disrupt any competition, presentation, or activity throughout the virtual conference experience.
- Any conference presentations, postings, or messages should contain only appropriate material related to the virtual TSA conference.
- Participants should not copy or take screenshots of competition activity, or any other activity, that takes place in the virtual space.

TSA reserves the right to take any action deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the virtual conference without warning or refund, in response to any incident of unacceptable behavior, and TSA reserves the right to prohibit attendance at any future conference, held virtually or in person.
