The 2022 National TSA Conference is being held only in-person in Dallas, Texas pursuant to local government orders permitting such gatherings. National TSA requires all attendees and staff to comply with safety precautions specified in the federal, state and local government, CDC, and applicable hotel guidelines. Any person disclosing or exhibiting symptoms of COVID-19, or knowingly exposed to the disease, will be refused admittance to the in-person event. Any persons refusing to comply with required safety protocols will be required to leave the conference without any refund and at their own expense. Completing registration and attending indicates your acknowledgment and acceptance of the following terms and conditions.

NOTE: It is the responsibility of the chapter advisor to make sure there is a completed waiver form for each participant and to give a copy to the state advisor prior to the conference if requested by the state advisor. National TSA reserves the right to request a completed copy of this form at any time from the chapter advisor or state advisor. Do not send this form to the national TSA office.

Assumption of Risk

The COVID-19 virus continues to spread from person-to-person contact and other means, and people can spread the disease without showing symptoms. Evidence has shown that COVID-19 can cause serious and potentially life-threatening illness and death. Therefore, if you choose to participate in the in-person 2022 National TSA Conference, you may be exposing yourself to or increasing your risk of contracting or spreading COVID-19, despite our safety precautions. In exchange for being allowed to participate in the in-person conference, I hereby choose to accept the risk of contracting COVID-19 for myself, peers, or my family.

Waiver of Lawsuit/Liability

I hereby forever release and waive any claims I might have and my right to bring suit against TSA or its officers, directors, managers, officials, trustees, agents, employees, or other representatives in connection with exposure, infection, and/or spread of COVID-19 related to my participation in-person at the 2022 National TSA Conference. I understand that this release and waiver means I give up my right to bring any claims for personal injuries, death, disease, property loss, or any other loss, based upon claims of negligence, intentional misconduct, or any other conduct.
