Onsite conference registration does not apply to competitive event registration. Competitors must be pre-registered.

 Guest includes non-TSA members (non-teacher/non-chaperone). Parents serving as advisors must pay the full advisor fee, not the guest fee.

 Child includes non-TSA members under the age of 10 accompanied by a registered adult. Children between ages 3-10 who are not competing or participating as a TSA chapter member must pay the guest fee. Children under the age of 3 are free.

ATTENDANCE AT THE CONFERENCE

The TSA, Inc. Board of Directors requires a minimum of one adult advisor or chaperone for no more than ten student members. All adult advisors and/or chaperones must register for the conference, pay the registration fee, and be in attendance for the duration of the conference. There are no restrictions regarding the number of adult advisors and chaperones who may attend. All teachers, parents, supervisors, and teacher-educators are eligible to serve in the capacity of chaperone.

In order to attend and/or compete at the National TSA Conference, all student members, including those who are 18 years of age (as well as graduates of the current school year) are required to attend the conference with an advisor, parent, or adult chaperone.

A student member must meet the criteria listed below to be eligible to attend the national conference.

- Be a current member in good standing with TSA. Membership must be on record with the national office, and student must have an account on the TSA Student Member Site.
- Have the approval of the TSA chapter and/or state advisor and the school administration.
- Have the written approval of a parent or guardian, via the signed Parent Authorization Form.
- Be in attendance throughout the duration of the national conference.

CONFERENCE EXPENSES

TSA is a non-profit organization. The conference registration fees are predetermined based upon an analysis of all expenditures necessary to make the national TSA conference a worthwhile and positive experience for all who attend. Conference registration fees cover various expense categories, including conference supplies, such as ID badges, ribbons, programs, and conference awards (plaques, certificates, etc.); conference special events and facilities (convention center, meeting rooms); and other related expenses, such as insurance and security.

Subject to change.*
