CODE OF CONDUCT

Coaches

1. Coaches shall conduct periodic meetings with their student attendees for the purpose of reviewing conference activities, obtaining progress reports, emphasizing time schedules, sharing successes, and overall, to ensure that the students are taking full advantage of the conference and its activities.
2. Each coach shall be responsible for ensuring that all student attendees adhere to all conduct practices and procedures, as published in this document.
3. Coaches will be responsible for their student attendees' conduct.
4. The rules, as stated in this Code of Conduct and in the TEAMS Dress Code, apply to coaches and parents as well as students.

Safety and Security

The safety and security of all persons who attend the conference is of the utmost concern to the governing body of TSA. There are numerous security guards, provided by the convention hotels and TSA, who work closely with local law enforcement. In addition, daily update meetings provide information on how to report any security issues that may arise. As a necessary precaution, TSA enforces the following procedures:

- All attendees must register for the conference.
- Identification (name badge) must be worn and be visible on a TSA lanyard by all onference attendees after June 26th.
- The mandatory student attendee curfew is 10:00pm.
- The conference is not “open to the public.”
- The TSA Code of Conduct must be followed by all attendees.

Personal items brought to the conference for use at the conference are the sole responsibility of the attendee who chooses to bring the items. If a participant chooses to bring items of value, the participant is responsible for their safekeeping at all times, including any item of monetary or personal value and items used in competitions. TSA accepts no responsibility for replacement of lost, misplaced, or stolen items and will not replace such items. This policy applies to all attendees and includes the conference management team and event coordinators.
